- 5.) Superintendent Comments – Made all of her comments in Committee Meeting.
- 6.) Board Member Comments – Ms. Breaux asked if there were going to be any dress code changes at the schools. She said she had received calls about no hoodies. Superintendent Tanner said BHS does not want any hoodies on heads once on campus. Superintendent said that they were weighing out everything and agrees about no hoodies on heads once on campus. She understands the community can't afford to go and purchase new jackets without hoodies. Staff is going to be held accountable to making sure students follow the dress code. Principal and Asst. Principal meetings are being held to discuss how we need to make it easier not harder. The culture between faculty and students has got to change. Accountability for all. Mrs. Duke asked if there would be an SRO officer on campus. Superintendent said she had been in touch with BPD and they do not have the man power. Policy and procedures are being worked on to insure the safety of the students and staff due to the current culture of school shootings.
- 7.) President Kates asked for any further comments, there were none. Meeting adjourned
